

TWSA and Kenosha Public Museum present:
Fall Into Watercolor Workshop

Joye Moon, Instructor
September 13, 14, 15, 16, 2011

Explore a range of watercolor techniques from realism to abstract to impressionism with Joye Moon. Develop new skills in working wet, negative painting, ranges of intensity, and much more while developing your own paintings. Daily critiques and discussions will be offered to all students as well as daily demonstrations. Supply lists will be emailed prior to the class. Lunch included in the fee.

Joye Moon is a Fine Arts Graduate from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh. A life long artist, Joye maintains her studio in Wisconsin and teaches watercolor workshops throughout the USA, Europe, South America, and the Caribbean. She has been invited to feature her work through one woman exhibits and group shows at art galleries, museums throughout the country as well as exhibiting in National and International Juried Exhibits.

Since Joye focuses on watercolor painting, she has been awarded her Signature Membership into the National Watercolor Society and is also a signature member of the Mississippi Watercolor Society, Rhode Island Watercolor Society and the Wisconsin Watercolor Society and the Western Colorado Watercolor Society. Joye has won top awards in Regional, State, National and International juried exhibitions. Most recent awards include "Best of Show" at the 17th Annual Western Colorado National Exhibit at Grand Junction, CO., the J. Paul Getty/Chase Award from the Society of Watercolor Artists International in Fort Worth, TX.
